

Double the fun at Dylan's Komediy Korner

SPECIAL TO THE BEACH NEWS

HAMPTON BEACH | Folks planning a visit to Hampton Beach are in for a special treat. Throughout the summer season, nationally known "R"-rated hypnotist, Richard Anthony and comic Johnny Joyce are appearing in Dylan's Komediy Korner Showroom at Dylan's Restaurant, located at 81 Ocean Boulevard, directly above Guido Murphy's.

Last season, the pair (who met in Hampton in 1996 when Dylan's Komediy Korner was known as Tortelli's Comedy Villa) were an instant hit on the beach, and a perfect complement to each other.

They later played Atlantic City and several other major venues together, till they lost track of each other when Richard moved to Las Vegas in 2003 to open his hypnosis show at the Riviera Hotel & Casino.

In the meantime Johnny developed into a "headliner" in his own right, and currently is featured on Boston Sports Radio 1510's "The Zone" every Saturday. His signature closer based on "Spongebob Square Pants" leaves audiences howling after every show.

Happily they were reunited last summer on Dylan's comedy stage. Richard quickly realized that Johnny was no longer an "opening act" and expanded his time slot from 10 minutes to a full 30-minute "headline" slot, followed by Richard's 70-minute "Exotic Hypnotics" show. As the pair puts it, "Audiences will get a 'double' show Wednesday through Sunday, for the price of one!"

On Tuesday nights, Johnny will headline his own full length show, "An Evening With Johnny Joyce & Friends." It will feature Johnny being joined by top New England comics for an evening of fast-paced laughs and crazy antics.

Richard's "Exotic Hypnotics" show needs no introduction in New England. Before moving to Las Vegas, he headlined every major club from Providence, Rhode Island to Bangor Maine. The show has also headlined in Vegas, Reno, Lake Tahoe, Atlantic City, and major Native American Casino Resorts from Coast to Coast.

Dylan's owners, the Traficantes were so happy with last year's show turn-outs that all cocktail shows will have Dylan's signature pizzas and appetizers available, but they are also designing a special "Dinner & Show" menu for the early shows on the weekends.

Johnny Joyce & Friends appear on Tuesday evenings with Stand-Up Comedy only, then Wednesday through Sunday it will be Richard Anthony's "Exotic Hypnotic" show plus Johnny opening with 30 minutes of stand-up comedy.

Cocktail shows will seat at 9:30 p.m. on Wednesdays through Sundays. On nights where fireworks are scheduled on the beach, the cocktail shows will start 15 minutes after the conclusion of the plays.

Reservations are definitely suggested for good seating at the performances. For reservations or for ticket information, call (603) 929-2077.

Volunteers needed for Seafood Festival

HAMPTON BEACH | Ever wonder what it takes to make one of the "Top 100 Events in North America" work? The answer?

Volunteers.

Hundreds of volunteers are needed to fully staff the 17th annual Seafood Festival, taking place this year the weekend of September 8-

10. Though many Hampton area residents are already lining up to get their assignments for this year's three-day extravaganza, many, many more are needed. It's easy to become a volunteer, and the Festival is a fun place to meet new people, re-acquaint with old friends and take pride in showing off Hampton Beach.

Some of the positions available include traffic control, beer tent, Coca-Cola sales, and many more. Volunteers' efforts will be rewarded with a crew T-shirt and one of the best parties ever attended, with dozens of door prizes, including round trip airline tickets from Southwest Airlines.

It's a win-win situation, so don't wait — join friends and neighbors by calling the Hampton Beach Seafood Festival Hotline at (603) 926-8718 ext. 104 or register online at www.hampton-beach-seafoodfestival.com to become a volunteer today.
