

Garrison Players open new season

SPECIAL TO THE BEACH NEWS

DOVER | Garrison Players will open their 2006-07 season on Friday, September 8 with Alan Ayckbourn's "How the Other Half Loves," directed by Leo Lunser, who directed last season's "Run for Your Wife." Performance dates are September 8-10 and 15-17.

"How the Other Half Loves" is a romantic comedy that pokes fun at adultery and the class system through the lives of three unhappily married couples. It features David Durham and Donna Goldfarb as Frank and Fiona Foster; Bob Boucher and Katie Makem as Bob and Teresa Phillips; and Phil Hesketh and Carol Adams Bitov as William and Mary Detweiler

Performance times are at 8 p.m., with Sunday matinees at 3 p.m. Tickets, at $15 for adults and $10 for students, are available by calling 750-4ART or in person at the Dover Train Station on Chestnut Street. Advance ticket purchase is recommended, as seating is limited.

Garrison Players is a non-profit, volunteer-based com-
