

FOR 79 CENTS.

You can buy at my store a three clasp RUSTLE and GLOVE in any size or color. Every pair perfect and fresh stock. The same price will be continued one more week. I am offering RARE BARGAINS. Velvet hats marked to one half original price. My line of toilet preparations are unsurpassed and are selling rapidly. Give them a trial and be convinced of their merit. Prices very low. Prompt attention given to special orders for mourning goods or other special occasions.

ARLETTE L. MORISON,

Road Block, 110 Main Street, Amesbury, Mass.

EXETER

Shire Town Happenings.

Thursday this town lost one of its best known citizens by the death of Edward H. Colman, who was stricken with paralysis Monday noon, and who succumbed to the stroke at 7 o'clock this morning. From the time of the attack his symptoms were left the bedside, but despite much attention the end came without the intervention of a gaining consciousness during the latter hours of his illness. At noon he called on his mother, the widow of ex-governor Charles H. Bell, who is residing in her home by illness, and as he was according the status he was in. Mrs. Bell's condition was so delicate that it was thought to be inadvisable to remain with the sad parts of her sons' illness. Even the wife's own condition was such that she had to be taken to a room in the city where she could be attended by a nurse. Many messages of condolence and sympathy were received by the family, and the funeral services were held at the home of Colman on Friday, March 16th, at 10 o'clock. The funeral was held at the home of Colman on Friday, March 16th, at 10 o'clock. The funeral was held at the home of Colman on Friday, March 16th, at 10 o'clock.

The graduation party at the high school have been assigned their subjects. Mark E. Piper, history; Joseph W. Tucker, geography; John V. Hersey, vocabulary; Reginald C. Stokop.

The value of the library which Edwin F. Rice of Boston is to present to the Exeter academy, and of which the first installment has not been delivered, is amply attested by the letter in which Mr. Rice signed to the school trustees. His intention to make the gift is the result of his visit to the academy and of his own conviction that the library of the school is one of the most valuable possessions of the town. There are several hundred on the French revolution, the Napoleonic wars, the restoration, Louis Philippe and the Second Empire. Many of the French men, manners and customs, general history, including biographies of authors, fiction, including early English, three editions of the works of Charles Dickens, early notes for some signal books and many books, engravings, pamphlets, illustrated books, absolutely unique. They being the only copies of each extant, and a general collection of such as books, maps, world maps, and many other things of scientific interest. In addition there is a large collection of autographs of famous authors, political and literary characters. Mr. Rice, who has long filled an important post in the Boston public affairs, entered Philip F. Lyman's office. His library, estimated to amount to over $10,000, is being sold by the trustees of the academy, and the proceeds will be used for the purchase of books and other things of scientific interest.

Teachers' Examination. An examination for State Teachers' Certificates will be held at Concord, Newmarket, High School and Lancaster High School, March 29 and 30, 1901. The New Hampshire State law authorizing district superintendents to prepare State certificates as a condition to the State as a district superintendent.

It is very probable that the number of inspectors of schools will be increased during the coming summer. All who wish to be eligible for positions are invited to take the examination in March.

Flowers That Bloom in the Spring. The annual Spring Exhibition of the Massachusetts Horticultural Society was held at the Hotel Grand Hall, on Wednesday, March 14th, lasting two days.

Frank A. Leason, who recently died of chloroform of consumption, aged 60, spent much of his boyhood in Exeter, where his mother was born. He was the nephew of Mr. Joseph B. Henshaw.

George P. Richards, register of probate, who for two weeks has been confined by rheumatic gout, expects to resume his usual work tomorrow.

The Women's Christian Temperance Society of Exeter is holding a Temperance Convention on Thursday, with morning and afternoon sessions.

It is reported that there will next week be a large number of pupils in the grammar school, who in the main town there are seats for only 50. It will be necessary to divide the school into sections and provide an assistant teacher.

After a three days hearing the estate of Jonathan has sustained the will of the late Charles Williams of Exeter. He gave nearly all his property to his daughter, Mrs. Harvey C. Knoll, with whom he later made his home, and to her children, A. son, Charles E. Williams, against the protest of the will and is likely to appeal to the supreme court.

A social will be held next Friday evening in the vestry of the Congregational church by the members of the C. E. Society.

The members of North Hampton grange employed a supper after a regular meeting in the town hall Tuesday evening.

Miss Gladys Young of Hampton is paying a week's visit to relatives in town.

Mrs. Albert Locke spent part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berry of Exeter.

Call at Manser, Newburyport, for information regarding this year's millinery. You can find just what you require.

A very successful masquerade ball occurred in Centennial hall on Monday evening under the management of Andrew J. Marston, assisted by John Whelan and Curtis Smith. Dances or orchestra of Newburyport furnished music, and there was a large attendance and some effective costuming.

Rev. William E. Noyes, director of the Little Wanderer's Home in Boston, will give an address next Sunday evening in the Congregational church. A choir of children from the home will be present and sing.

meeting in the town hall Tuesday evening.

Miss Gladys Young of Hampton is paying a week's visit to relatives in town.

Mrs. Albert Locke spent part of last week with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Berry of Exeter.

Call at Manser, Newburyport, for information regarding this year's millinery. You can find just what you require.

YOUTH'S DEPARTMENT.

Somebody has given his idea that we may know a good deal about men's characters by the way they comb their hair. This is very likely to be true. We might also learn a thing or two about women's characters if we took note of the bonnets which they select, but I am not going to inflict upon those. Again, I am sure you could get out signs of a boy's character if you notice how he arranges his cap on his head and how he treats it too. I have seen a boy kicking his cap along a road as he might a football, which did not make me think of him as a person of method and order? Certainly the man who has a hat which sits squarely on his head, not tilting to the right or the left. Such a man is your neighbor. You know something to be said for the man whose hat always seems too large for him. He may be a bit careless, perhaps eccentric, yet several great men have worn hats distinctly big. For instance, Mr. Gladstone's hat often seemed inclined to come over his ears. He who tips his hat to one side or the other is apt to be conceited or otherwise to make himself remarkable. Then it is supposed that those having hats which seem always too small for them are men of narrow mind. He who usually pulls his hat over his eyes is probably not truthful or is suspicious. A such a person seldom takes a cheerful view of people and things around. But the man who usually has his hat pushed off his face deserves the kindly regard of his friends. Often his intelligence, cheerful personality comes out with a rush of some, though he whose hat leans to far back over his shoulders is less to be admired. He is eccentric—Chatterbox.

NOTICE.

The collector takes notice that he has in his possession the estate of Spring, the late of Exeter, who died the 1st day of April. Further particulars next week.

Best for the Bowels.

CANDY CATHARTIC Cascarets.

EAT 'EM LIKE CANDY.

KEEP YOUR BLOOD CLEAN.

"C" With a Tail.

THE SCOTT GRAIN CO.

Amesbury, Mass.

Amesbury, Mass.

Amesbury, Mass.

Amesbury, Mass.

Amesbury, Mass.

Amesbury, Mass.

WE OFFER

The largest assortment of the choicest seeds in this vicinity and at prices extremely.

- Fancy Timothy, per bushel, $2.60
Choice Red Clover, 1.35 per lb.
Choice White Clover, 20c per lb.
Choice Alsike, 1.75 per lb.
Fancy Chaffed Red Top, 15c per lb.
Orchard Grass, $2.00 per bushel.
Hungarian, $1.00 per bushel.
Leaning Cover, $1.00 per bushel.
White Southern Clover, $1.00 per bushel.
Stowell's Evergreen (extra quality) $1.75 per bushel.

To appreciate these prices it is necessary that you see the goods. Examine our stock before you place your order.

The Scott Grain Co.

Amesbury, Mass.

Many School Children Are Sickly. Mother Gray's Sweet Powders for Children, used by Mother Gray, a nurse in a children's home, New York, break up Colds in 24 hours, cure Feverishness, Headache, Stomach Troubles, Teething Disorders and Destroy Worms. Address, Allen S. Omsted, Telroy, N. Y.

What Shall We Have For Dessert? This question arises in the family every day. Let us answer today. Try Jell-O, a delicious dessert. Prepare in 20 minutes. No baking, add hot water and set to cool. Flavors: Lemon, Orange, Raspberry and Strawberry. At your grocers. To the Pure Drugs & Medicines. Toilet articles, Confectionery, Stationery, Cigars and Tobacco. Toilet Articles, Prepared Foods for Invalids and Infants.

Pennyroyal Pills. PARKER'S HAIR BALSAM.

Fire, Life, Health, Accident INSURANCE.

Lowest Rates. Guaranteed Results.

Bonds, Deeds, Wills, and all legal instruments drawn at short notice. Drop me a post card for information wanted, or I will call at your request.

Henry C. Seamans, P. O. Box 9, SOUTH SEABROOK, N. H.

It is a Good Plan...

To keep posted, and know where it is best to trade, in order to get the most value for your money.

COAL. YOU SHOULD GET IT OF JOHN H. BALCH, Jr., 47 Water Street, Newburyport, Mass.

House and SIGN PAINTER.

Hampton.

Hampton.

Hampton.

UNIVERSAL

Food Chopper.

Each Machine has Three Cutters and Chops Coarse, Medium or Fine. It Replaces the Chopping Bowl and is A Household Necessity Which You Will Use Every Day.

Allen's Hardware Store.

Amesbury, Mass.

S. Wesley Dearborn.

Carpenter and Builder.

Plans and Specifications drafted and estimates furnished.

Lumber of All Kinds.

Constantly on hand HAMPTON.

WANTED: Christian man of sound mind, living in quality for permanent position of trust, here or in foreign country. Send weekly enclosed self addressed, stamped envelope to Secretary, care of "Record".

BATCHELDER'S MARKET!

FRESH MEATS and PROVISIONS.

Of finest quality. Fruits of All Kinds in their season. Canned Goods in great variety. Refrigerated Wagon for delivery.

W. M. Batchelder, HAMPTON, N. H.

If you are interested in Poultry.

G. A. Johnson, HOUSE AND SIGN PAINTER.

Hampton.

Hampton.

Hampton.

Hampton.

Hampton.

Hampton.

Hampton.

Hampton.

MAKE YOUR HENS LAY BY USING McNEIL'S GROUND BONE—The Best Poultry Food on the Market. We Carry a Full Line of MEATS and PROVISIONS, With Prices the Lowest in Town.

Call and See Us. Wm. McNEIL, 108 Elm Street, Amesbury, Mass.