

SAVE YOUR HAIR

With Shampoos of Cuticura Soap and Light Dressings of Cuticura

This treatment at once stops falling hair, removes crusts, scales, and dandruff, soothes irritated, itching surfaces, stimulates hair follicles, supplies the roots with energy and nourishment, and makes the hair grow upon a sweet, wholesome, healthy scalp when all else fails.

Millions of Women Use Cuticura Soap

Assisted by CUTICURA OINTMENT for preserving, purifying and beautifying the skin, for cleansing the scalp, for eradicating dandruff and itching, and for stopping the falling hair, for softening, whitening and soothing red, rough and sore hands, in the form of baths for alleviating irritations, inflammations and chafes, or too free or often use of perspiration in the form of washes for alleviating weaknesses, and for a variety of other purposes, which readily suggest themselves to women and mothers, and for all the purposes of the toilet, CUTICURA SOAP is the most effective and most economical. It is not only used to cleanse the skin, but also for preserving and purifying the skin, scalp and face of infants and children. No other so-called soap ever compounded is so well adapted for preserving and purifying and beautifying the skin, scalp, hair and hands. No other so-called soap ever compounded is so gentle, so expensive, is so well adapted for domestic toilet soap, however expensive, is so well adapted for all the purposes of the toilet, hair and skin.

they pull faster than the water, so that there is resistance to the oars, and the hindmost faster they pull the more the resistance. In the same way, when a shell is pushing through the water, the men are pulling water which is pushing in the same direction as the tank water.

The tank is of concrete, 65 feet long by 26 feet wide. It has 20 inches of water in it. The seats are on a rectangular wooden box supported from the bottom.

By a Woman For Women.

There is a woman's device for keeping the bottom of the skirts dry and clean on rainy days. It consists primarily of a wide strip of waterproof cloth which is designed to be attached to the clothing in such a manner that it forms an elongated pocket around the bottom of the skirts. This pocket may be used as an addition to other storm skirts, or the skirt, being secured to the inner edge of the skirt by any convenient method. The lower edge then falls considerably below the dress and underskirts and is provided with safety pins. The latter are utilized to fasten moisture. As the tendency of the device is to raise the clothing from the ground it is not necessary to hold the skirt up with the hand. When the wearer reaches home, the protector can be detached and hung up to dry.

Heien Gould's Handkerchiefs.

Miss Gould has an interesting little handkerchief, says one who knows. She has evidently learned that to protect and preserve her own hand when giving it to the hands of others she must do most of the shaking herself. She takes the proffered hand firmly in her own at about elbow level, holds it there for an instant, then raises it quickly to an almost exactly perpendicular position, then suddenly releases it. She looks directly into the eyes of the person she is shaking and probably not one in a hundred passes on without tapping with him the conviction that the fair-faced young woman he has just met sincerely enjoyed the meeting.
