LOOKING BACK

The year of 2004 was a very interesting and exciting year in the children's room. January started the year with a flood. Though this sounds terrible, so many good things have come out of a disaster. Yes, we did lose books and furnishings, but the community support was so unbelievable and the room is so wonderful now.

Once all was back together, we had our story times, summer reading, book groups and special events. We met new children and continued to enjoy our old friends.

Looking back, it was a great year in a great community.
