Spanish Language Materials: Bilingual Board Books

By Paulina Shadowens

You requested, and we responded! Thanks to your input, we've been developing our collection of materials to help children learn Spanish. For the very young, we now have board books from the award-winning English-Spanish Foundation Series. These books offer a few brief sentences in English at the top of each page, with the Spanish equivalent on the bottom. Pronunciations for both languages are given at the back of the book.

Titles added to our collection so far include My Family and I/Mi Familia yo and Fruits and Vegetables/Frutas y vegetales. We expect to receive more in the series soon, so keep an eye out for titles about the weather, neighborhoods, and car, trucks, and planes.

We also now have a bilingual board book edition of Goodnight Moon/Buenas Noches Luna, and we have additional dual language children's classics on order. Please come in and check out our new additions.
