

Summer Reading List 2010

Honors and Accelerated level classes - summer reading is required
Preparatory and Basic level classes - summer reading is optional

Expect to be assessed on summer reading within the first week of class.

Summer Reading List and required books are also available at The Book Outlet in North Hampton

English I

- Honors Level - The Book Thief by Marcus Zusak
- Accelerated Level - Staying Fat for Sarah Byrnes by Chris Crutcher
- Prep & Basic Level - Twisted by Laurie Halse Anderson

American Literature

- Honors Level - East of Eden by John Steinbeck
- Acc. Level - The Color of Water: A Black Man's Tribute to His White Mother by James McBride
- Preparatory Level - The Car by Gary Paulsen
- Basic Level - Tony Hawk: Professional Skateboarder by Tony Hawk

World Literature

- Honors Level - Three Cups of Tea by Greg Mortenson and David Oliver Relin
- Accelerated Level - A Thousand Splended Suns by Khaled Hosseini
- Preparatory Level - The Bread Winner by Deborah Ellis
- Basic Level - Sold by Patricia McCormick

Senior English

- Prep & Basic - A Walk in the Woods by Bill Bryson

College Composition

(both are required)

- A Walk in the Woods by Bill Bryson
- Extremely Loud and Incredibly Close by Jonathan Safran Foer

AP Literature

- Water for Elephants by Sara Gruen

- Bridge of Sighs by Richard Russo
- Let the Great World Spin by Colum McCann

Many of these novels are available as books on tape.