PRIZES AND REWARDS

Adults, teens, and children may pick up bookmarks at the library starting June 19th.

- Adults, students going into 4th or 5th grade, and teens are challenged to read 4 books and track them on a “Sponsor” bookmark. Bring a completed “Sponsor” bookmark to any circulation desk for validation. Completed bookmarks may be redeemed for $5 off a purchase from our generous sponsors Blue Harbor Coffee Co., Susie’s Sweet Ice Cream, Huckleberry’s Fine Candies, and Las Olas. “Sponsor” bookmarks must be redeemed by August 12th. They cannot be combined or used for a cash value.
- Children up through the 5th grade can pick an item from our Summer Prize Store by completing “Reading” or “Reading and Activities” bookmarks! They are only eligible to redeem two bookmarks per week. Children’s bookmarks must be redeemed by August 4th. Prizes available while supplies last.
- Students going into 4th or 5th grade are welcome to participate in either the “Sponsor” bookmark or the Summer Prize Store bookmark program. They are only eligible to redeem two bookmarks a week.

Librarywide Event: Seacoast West African Dance and Drum / Lane Room or Library Lawn

All Ages / Registration Required

Thursday, July 13th 6 PM

Join renowned djembefola, Namory Keita, originally from Sangbaralla, Guinea in West Africa and native New Englander, Liz Fowler for an evening of music and dance. Namory was the lead drummer in his village of Sangbaralla, Guinea before relocating to New England more than eight years ago. He's a master of traditional (or village style) drum from Guinea which he continues to share throughout North America and around the world through workshops, residencies, and performances. He's a member of Theo Martey's Akwaaba Ensemble, sharing drum and dance from both Ghana and Guinea. He now lives in Portland, ME, where he leads accompaniment for dance taught by Marita Kennedy-Castro and together they formed the New Moon Ensemble.

Liz has studied dances from Guinea, West Africa since 1995, after first being introduced to West African Dance as an undergraduate at Connecticut College. She's traveled to Guinea five times to dance and to learn more about many parts of the culture. Here in the US she has studied with several Guinean dance teachers including Youssouf Koumbassa. Registration is required.

Adult Event: Neil Novello presents The Castle: "Stories of the Portsmouth Naval Prison" / Lane Room

Adults / Registration Required

Thursday, July 27th, 6 PM

The Naval prison has been a fixture on a bluff overlooking the Piscataqua River adjacent to the Portsmouth Naval Shipyard in Kittery, ME for 114 years. Mr. Novello's presentation will be a combination of historic photos along with video clips from his documentary video anthology called, The Castle: Stories of the Portsmouth Naval Prison that chronicles the 66 year history of the Navy's only maximum security prison in the world where as many as 50,000 sailors and Marines spent time. The video clips cover three time periods starting with the end of World War 1; highlights the controversial Commander of the prison who brought scandal, prison reform, and a movie crew. There's 90 year-old footage of the prison from a silent Hollywood movie where Naval prisoners were used as extras. From the World War II era, Mr. Novello will show a video clip filmed in May 1945 which features rarely seen footage of captured German U-Boat crews escorted to the Naval prison. Registration is required.
